

WHAT MIGHT ONE FIND...

→ In a Strange Pool of Collected Essences

Here we are. Looking for something. Lots of things here. What a strange pool of collected essences. Offered in service of the perpetual evolution of consciousness. May we integrate and unify our existence. May we unbind from our conditions. Serious.

We are a work in progress. This resource is an authentic reflection of the author's evolutionary status queue. Whatever that you may find here – and whatever that you may do with it. I don't really know or worry much. Pardon the forever dust.
