The Word in the beginning is the Truth that reigns forever. Truth is ever-present in the fabric of the creation. We are veiled by our agendas. We are lost in our doctrines. This is an essentialist dispensation. Return to the living essence.

What is the death and resurrection of the body of Christ? How do we die in Christ? How are the sermons to the churches?

Must we seek this in the far reaches of Asia Minor – or is there a path of pilgrimage and purification closer to home?

Our "Bible Drops" series distills the living core of biblical wisdom and legends. If you wish to believe – this is not for you. If you seek to live in the truth and essence of the word and world become – may you find some meaning here.

In the beginning, there was the Word. The Word was the Truth of all formations. Before the Word, there is the radiant God. Creative potential, undifferentiated.

With this epilogue, we enter into "Bible Drops", selected essence from the biblical wisdom traditions. These are not the opinions and doctrines of a particular Christian alignment. This is a simple essentialist dispensation. Living essence.

If your tales and theologies do not compile into something we can directly witness in the workings of our lives, of our consciousness – they are useless. Let us then die to our stagnated doctrines, resurrect the living essence.

Say, the Christ died for our sins, and on the third day he was resurrected from the cave. What does that even mean? Does it mean that I get to sin again, and he will die again, or every time I do evil, God will kill a kitten Jesus? That makes no sense whatsoever.

Contemplate the sermons of the Christ to the seven churches. These churches are the body of Christ – a star and an angel presiding over each. You too are the body of Christ with each of your churches, the stations of your life-cycle and cognitive evolution, holding their merits, holding their vices. On this path, through the churches, toward the radiance of Christ, the word of truth will set you free.

This truth is not a written word in a document. It is the voice of truth resonating in actuality, the reality of creation itself, without your projection and desire. When the truth of "what is" becomes our beacon, our illusions, our lies, our evils, our sins, born of separation, will be eliminated. This is the simple path.

And we die in Christ each day anew. What means that?

Each day, each moment, we rise above our little selves, evaluate our goods and evils in light of the truth. What is, as it is, without our clouds. That shall stand, clear as the heaven. The phantoms dancing in the mist, spawned under the sheets of your fragmented agendas. These will die, every day and over and over again, until we are pure through and through.

Until the veils of separation have been lifted. We are in radiance, we are in truth. There we have our first drop of essence. The old order has ceased. Thy kingdom come. This is the meaning.
