Life is like a donut! But how is that? Watch and find out! This is how we astral travel to Butterland. Comment "DONUT" and smile if you believe you're a true donut at heart. Our recruiters will contact you for further personal information.

It may or may not relate to your torus field & keeping a clear space in the heart.

If you let all the tastes flow – if the filling isn't sticky... You may meet Butter Absolute and enter the Great Vehicle. Fly back Home – back to Butterland! Yay!

Life is like a donut. A wonderful ring with a gaping hole in the middle.

All of life passing through. Incoming, outgoing. Inputs, outputs. Recognitions and impressions. Conceptions and emotions. And there we are, in that hole in the middle of the donut of life.

That hole in the middle may fill with many kinds of flavors. Raspberry, blueberry or cheesecake. Yet if you hold on to it, or you try to fill it by force, it all turns so very sour.

However, if that hole in the middle of your donut is bright and clear and pure, it fills with Butter Absolute, the essence of life.

When the heart of your donut flows pure and clear, like clarified butter, you can enter the great vehicle and fly back home – back to Butterland!
