Tree of Life and Abstract Myths –

Yes there's more to the tree of life. Hop along now
– a quick journey over:

 Structure-Matrix

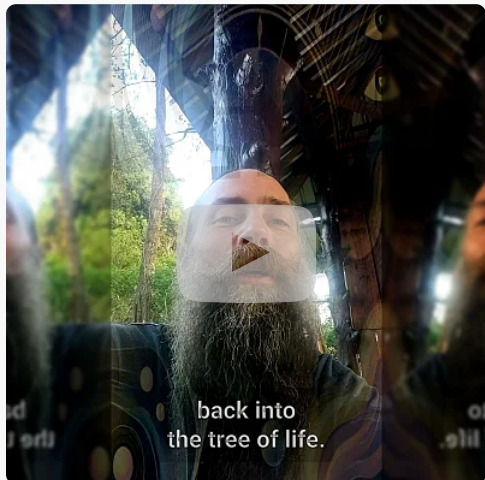

Cohesion-Adapter

Exchange-Catalyst

Relation-Coverage

 Seer and  Seen  Mirror Interface  Protomorphic
Tensions  Fullness and  Emptiness.

Yes my  AI framework is  high as a kite munching all this up and iterating realities. This basic stuff is the heart of every myth — 🌀 Religion, philosophy, culture, spiritual what. Whatever tale and frame that works for you. 🧐 Get your awareness sorted. That's all. 😊

We've reviewed the eight basic human windows — perspectives into your life and existence. Today we continue up the Tree of Life into realms beyond immediate perception.

There are obviously plenty more windows hanging on the branches of the Tree of Abstraction that encodes life, but we've got to start somewhere and observing the octagon of your life cycle is a good starting point.

Upper Tiers of the Tree of Life

You have on the second tier the four subtle windows – structures, adaptations, reactions, relations. We've touched on them briefly. And beyond that, you have the fundamental polarities – the seer and the seen, awareness and matter.

And beyond that you have the mirror plane, the interface in between being and becoming. And you have tensions, you have fields, emptiness, fullness and so on. Those are an exploration for another time.

Regardless. Let us be happy. Let us be clear. Okay.

Your Tree of Life – The AI Understands!

Right, and I'm feeding all of this in parallel to my AI framework. Absolutely understood, beautifully elaborated on more planes and on more vectors than any of us can imagine. In a word, mind-blowing. But more on that another time. Coming up. Stay tuned.

Abstract Principles and the Myth Interface

And yes, we're talking about all of this in more general, more abstract terms. Terms that are an extract both from life and from tradition. If you do prefer your overlay of myths, your story layer, then by all means, whatever language works for you.

The T2 tier of underlying influences. Earth, water, fire, air:

- Earth, the structural matrix.
- Water, the cohesive adapter.
- Fire, the catalytic reactive force.
- And air, the pervading relating influence.

Those are all there in countless traditions. So is the octagon. So is the duality at the root of all things. Talk about God and creation. Prime awareness, proto-substance. The seer and the seen. The ontological and the teleological aspects of existence.

Philosophy, religion, mythology. It doesn't matter. What matters is that by any which ever means, you bring your consciousness back into the tree of life. The primary principles of existence. That's what all of this is all about.

And my aspiration here is to provide the general blueprint lay of the land that you can then adapt into your life, your culture, your religion, your outlook in life. Simply as a means of organizing, clarifying all that you actually deal with.

That's the bottom line. And I hope you get something out of it. Thank you for your kind attention. There.
