What exactly are we doing here?
Streaming in a thousand reels – yes,
sourcing from our foundry channel @Mr.Om.Ananda – uncut insight in anthologies – and core extracts in short wisdom drops – to brighten and deepen your misty days.

We're well into the "Walkie Talkie" and "Ponder Struck" tandem release arc here. Next up, whisper the little birds, it's "Hearty Chatter" and "By the Way" series – pairing up to churn your emotions and intellect into harmonic atmospheres.

So – what's going on? What are we doing here? "Kernel Drops", the big picture, short version.

You've noticed by now that I have a lot of cats, and we are publishing short-form videos... The two pilot series we're rolling out, "Walkie Talkie" and "Ponder Struck" in tandem.

All of this material originates from our foundry channel – @Mr.Om.Ananda – with new content rolling in every day. At Kernel Drops, we publish uncut extended versions of these in longer form anthologies, and then all the little snap cuts...

The deeper dives are supported by short snap cuts, choice essence dropping in a couple of times a day. Our second anthology for the "Walkie Talkie" series just dropped in. Still in the spirit of Be Here Now, but the present is becoming more consequential. Shortly, you'll also get the second anthology for our "Ponder Struck" series, getting deeper into your process of integration.

When that's all a wrap, we'll take a second pair of streams from the ocean of our foundry channel. The grape-vine whispers, it's going to be "Hearty Chatter" and "By the Way". "Hearty Chatter", another sit-down series, friend of the "Ponder Struck", musing on things that matter in life.

Then "By the Way", another walking series, but way more cognitive than "Walkie Talkie" ever was. "Hearty Chatter", food for the emotional being, and "By the Way", food for the rational being. These are the Yin and Yang of our productions – spinning and spinning into your feeds all day long.

All of this neatly organized into playlists. Transcripts available in the repository at < ananda.icu >. – We are Kernel Drops. Follow the trails. Discover your islands.

And if it's not a major hassle, then please do click a 👍 like and even subscribe. It helps bring our content to more people. We're not doing this to make money. We're doing this because it's a thing to do. Please help out – participate.

See you later. I'm out to film more content for the foundry channel. Check out the "Behind the Scenes" series at < @Mr.Om.Ananda > It'll tell you a ton more about what we're doing and how we're doing it. All right.
