Into the Cognitive Mothership. When your awareness attends at narrow-band. Extreme concentration on prime archetypes. It touches upon localized super-states. As it reaches integrating broad spectrum, all of that is woven together into a system, attains structural integrity — your vehicle.

This super-symmetric sphere of attention becomes your cognitive ascension mothership. A loom of the prime patterns of actuality. On the abstract access planes of metacognition, we are at liberty to journey across every legend, and beyond – into the raw fabric of reality itself.

The great vehicle of recognized crystalline patterns:

- Remover of veils and dispeller of our hallucinations.
- Revealer of all things: Into the essence of actuality.

Actually. What is the Great Vehicle, the Merkabah Ascension Vessel, the Alien Mothership, the Celestial Chariot of Ezekiel's visions? Even the Magnum Opus of the alchemists and the Sphere of the Machine Elves? We need not enter into belief and myth or disconnected transcendence. All of this is the realm of cognitive phenomena within our reach.

There is a method, there is a process. When your awareness attends at narrow band, extreme concentration, upon particular primary archetypes, it touches upon localized superstates. As it reaches the broad spectrum, all of that is woven together into a loom of awareness. It becomes a system, attains structural integrity. It becomes a vehicle you can enter and operate in.

Awareness itself, no longer scattered and fragmented, turns into a supersymmetric sphere, becomes your cognitive mothership on the planes of metacognition, a field of abstraction in which all is accessible. In this vessel of harmonized abstractions, you are at liberty to travel through any myth, through any legend, and beyond, into the fabric underneath the reality we experience in our day-to-day life.

The great vehicle of recognized, crystallized and harmonized patterns is the revealer of all things. It is your vessel not for transcending into the yonder, but for returning into the actuality that we dwell in. It is the unveiler, the remover of hallucinations and distortions. It is the revealer of the essence of all that is. Then take the journey, embrace the method, iterate through the process.

First attending to the essence of every specific thing that is. Then, beholding the fullness of their system: Harmonize. Adapt. Engage. Ascend from fragmented confusion. Weave your well-rounded loom of awareness. Establish your consciousness in the orbit from which all things specific and general will be clear. Beyond your finite sense of self – to a universal plane of abstract patterns.

That is the sum and substance of the great vehicle, and there is no myth superseding this principle. Do not chase celestial illusions. Cultivate your consciousness. Boot up your cognitive mothership. Rise beyond the bondage of your conditions. Ever inquire and distill the essence of all that you encounter. You will touch the heart of what is – and you will be the heart of the beyond. Onward into broad new horizons – brave new world of consciousness. Be well.
